Young Leadership Council Announces Juliana Anderson as Development Coordinator

New Orleans, LA (January 3, 2010) – Young Leadership Council (YLC), a non-profit civic organization that develops leadership skills through community projects, named Juliana Anderson as development coordinator.

As development coordinator, Anderson will support all fundraising functions for the organization including coordinating the YLC's annual Role Model Gala, grant writing and the organization's annual fund campaign.

Anderson attended Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa and received her Bachelor's Degree in Political Science and Legal Studies. She is an active member of the Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP) and 504ward.

According to Amy Boyle Collins, executive director of YLC, "Juliana is the perfect fit for YLC. Her enthusiasm and new ideas from day one have already made her an integral member of our team and we're looking forward to watching the company grow with her on board."

Anderson's appointment is effective immediately.

For more information on the YLC, please visit our website at www.youngleadershipcouncil.org.

The Young Leadership Council is a non-profit, non-partisan civic organization created to develop leadership through community projects. Through volunteer-created community projects, the YLC recruits and retains young professionals to New Orleans, creating a positive impact on the quality of life in the region. The oldest, independent YPO (young professionals' organization) in the country, the YLC has raised more than $25 million to support community projects in and around the New Orleans area since 1986.
